Introduction

1. The Pradhan Mantri Swasthya Suraksha Yojana (PMSSY) aims at correcting the imbalances in the availability of affordable healthcare facilities in the different parts of the country in general, and augmenting facilities for quality medical education in the under-served States in particular. The scheme was announced in August 2003 and approved in March 2006.

The first phase in the PMSSY has two components - setting up of six institutions in the line of AIIMS; and upgradation of 13 existing Government medical college institutions.

It was decided to set up 6 AIIMS-like institutions, one each in the States of Bihar (Patna), Chattisgarh (Raipur), Madhya Pradesh (Bhopal), Orissa (Bhubaneswar), Rajasthan (Jodhpur) and Uttaranchal (Rishikesh) at an estimated cost of Rs 840 crores per institution. These states have been identified on the basis of various socio-economic indicators like human development index, literacy rate, population below poverty line and per capital income and health indicators like population to bed ratio, prevalence rate of serious communicable diseases, infant mortality rate etc. Each institution will have a 960 bedded hospital (500 beds for the medical college hospital; 300 beds for Speciality/Super Speciality; 100 beds for ICU/Accident trauma; 30 beds for Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation and 30 beds for Ayush) intended to provide healthcare facilities in 42 Speciality/Super-Speciality disciplines. Medical College will have 100 UG intake besides facilities for imparting PG/doctoral courses in various disciplines, an intake of 100 students for B.Sc. Nursing and 25 students of M.Sc. Nursing, largely based on Medical Council of India (MCI) and Nursing Council norms.

In pursuance objective of above mandate, 4089 posts for each AIIMS were sanctioned by Government of India in FY 2013-14 for recruitment. The present exercise is confined to preparation of Recruitment Rules for Non-Faculty posts. As these new AIIMS were established in line with AIIMS, New Delhi, they were asked to follow the extant recruitment rules of AIIMS, New Delhi. However, AIIMS New Delhi, being an established institution, had entirely different cadre structure based on already existing feeder cadres which can be utilized towards filling the vacancies by way of promotions. In light of the above, the new AIIMS were not able to position themselves to adopt the method of promotions to fill up the vacant sanctioned posts.

Therefore, the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare constituted a committee to frame recruitment rules of non faculty posts for new AIIMS under PMSSY vide no Z-28016/259/2013-SSH(FTS-71083) dated 28th Feb 2014 with the following composition.
